To Whom It May Concern:

Hope Community Charter School currently has 3 professionals from Focus Staffing Group on our team. They are from a variety of disciplines including social worker, speech and language, and school administration.

Each one of these people is a pleasure to work with. They are always professional, friendly, and have our student's best interests at the forefront of their work. They are all very experienced and knowledgeable in their respective fields. Their interactions with students are thoughtful and effective.

These professionals are a valuable addition to our team and it is a pleasure to work with them.

Sincerely,

Tracy H. Foedisch
